

Honors Forum Housing Application 2013-2014

The purpose of the Honors Forum floor is to build a residential community within the Honors Forum, with a particular emphasis on citizenship.

Whether you are about to begin your Citizenship Project or you have completed your project, you are encouraged to apply for this housing opportunity. Students who have completed their projects will mentor those who are working on their projects during the 2013-14 academic year.

The second floor of Wiecking Hall will be designated as the Honors Forum floor. Wiecking Hall has singles and doubles.

Frequently Asked Questions

Who is eligible to live on the Honors Forum Floor?

We are extending this opportunity to all Honors Forum members in good standing.

If I am chosen to live on the Honors Forum floor, when do I select my room?

If you are selected, you will receive an email indicating the date, time, and location of selection. The order is determined by your class year and lottery number.

I am interested in a double room on the Honors Forum floor; however, my friend is not in the Honors Forum. Can my friend live with me?

Yes, for a double room, you may pull in a student who is not a member.

Applications are due Monday, April 15, 2013 by 6:00 p.m. to the Office of Residential Life.

If you would like to apply to Honors housing, please fill out the information below.

Name:

Class Year:

Lottery Number:

On a separate sheet, please answer the following questions:

1. Please describe your interest in living on the Honors Forum floor.
2. Please describe your Citizenship Project plans. If you have already completed your project, please describe your ability to mentor others who are currently working on their projects.

If you are selected, you will be able to participate in a designated drawing to select your room on this floor.