Led by directors Robert Boyers and Adam Braver, the New York State Summer Writers Institute has been offering students the opportunity to learn from an extraordinary faculty of distinguished writers since 1987. The program is an offshoot of the New York State Writers Institute created by Albany native and Pulitzer Prize-winning author William Kennedy. The curriculum is designed for college-aged students and adults and is well-known for its small classes that offer individualized attention. Unless otherwise noted, all events are held on the Skidmore College campus and are free and open to the public. Tickets are required for Caffe Lena events.
